Disunited Nations Peter Zeihan,2020-03-03 Should we stop caring about fading regional powers like China Russia Germany and Iran Will the collapse of international cooperation push France Turkey Japan and Saudi Arabia to the top of international concerns Most countries and companies are not prepared for the world Peter Zeihan says we re already living in For decades America s allies have depended on its might for their economic and physical security But as a new age of American isolationism dawns the results will surprise everyone In Disunited Nations geopolitical strategist Peter Zeihan presents a series of counterintuitive arguments about the future of a world where trade agreements are coming apart and international institutions are losing their power Germany will decline as the most powerful country in Europe with France taking its place Every country should prepare for the collapse of China not North Korea We are already seeing as Zeihan predicts a shift in outlook on the Middle East It is no longer Iran that is the region s most dangerous threat but Saudi Arabia The world has gotten so accustomed to the normal of an American dominated order that we have all forgotten the historical norm several smaller competing powers and economic systems throughout Europe and Asia America isn t the only nation stepping back from the international system From Brazil to Great Britain to Russia leaders are deciding that even if plenty of countries lose in the growing disunited chaos their nations will benefit The world isn t falling apart it s being pushed apart The countries and businesses prepared for this new every country for itself ethic are those that will prevail those shackled to the status quo will find themselves lost in the new world disorder Smart interesting and essential reading Disunited Nations is a sure to be controversial guidebook that analyzes the emerging shifts and resulting problems that will arise in the next two decades We are entering a period of chaos and no political or corporate leader can ignore Zeihan s insights or his message if they want to survive and thrive in this uncertain new time
