Fresh From the Word 2023 David Painting, 2022-08-18 Fresh from the Word 2023 aims to help us build the discipline of Bible reading into our lives so we are grounded in God's word and our faith may deepen and develop. By offering accessible and engaging material it aids our understanding of the Bible and helps us understand it from different Christian perspectives. One of the key themes in this year's edition is Hidden Heroes/ Heroines characters in the Bible who are overlooked but play a pivotal role in the unfolding of the Kingdom. As we read their stories we may be encouraged that our lives though they sometimes feel insignificant are indeed being used by God in ways possibly beyond our imagining. The book also explores the different types of literature in the Bible. A number of the international and diverse community of writers who have contributed their wisdom, understanding and hard won insights to encourage and bless us unpack passages written in each particular style. And so we learn how we might safely interpret poetry, law, prophecy, narrative or apocalyptic. The hope is that these reflections and indeed the complete volume will help us see revealed that which was previously hidden from us. Contributors this year include Terry Lester who writes on the Judges of Israel. Terry has been an Anglican priest in Cape Town for almost four decades and currently serves in Constantia. A vocal advocate for justice he is engaged in projects aimed at restoring dignity and building reconciliation in his fragmented community. Immacule Hedden who writes on Healing Divisions in the Old Testament. She and her husband Richard are the authors of Under His Mighty Hand the story of how she survived the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi. The couple are currently based in Rwanda serving in healing and counselling support ministry with YWAM. Jane Gonzalez who writes on Celebrations. Jane is a Roman Catholic laywoman and an active member of the Justice and Peace Group. Joshua Taylor who writes on The God of all Comfort and Mercy. Joshua is an Anglican Priest in New Zealand where he and his family have been exploring what it means to be a family following the way of Jesus. Louise Jones who writes on Lord of the Sabbath Working for an embedded community based organization Newbigin Community Trust. Louise has a passion for empowering, resourcing and loving those who have slipped through the cracks of our systems in order to help people see their immense value and worth in Jesus.

Human Rights Makau Mutua,2013-07-03 In 1948 the United Nations adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and with it a profusion of norms processes and institutions to define promote and protect human rights Today virtually every cause seeks to cloak itself in the righteous language of rights But even so this universal reliance on the rights idiom has not succeeded in creating common ground and deep agreement as to the scope content and philosophical bases for human rights Makau Mutua argues that the human rights enterprise inappropriately presents itself as a guarantor of eternal truths without which human civilization is impossible Mutua contends that in fact the human rights corpus though well meaning is a Eurocentric construct for the reconstitution of non Western societies and peoples with a set of culturally biased norms and practices Mutua maintains that if the human rights movement is to succeed it must move away from Eurocentrism as a civilizing crusade and attack on non European peoples Only a genuine multicultural approach to human rights can make it truly universal Indigenous non European traditions of Asia Africa the Pacific and the Americas must be deployed to deconstruct and to reconstruct a universal bundle of rights that all human societies can claim as theirs

Wives of the Leopard Edna G. Bay, 2012-06-29 Wives of the Leopard explores power and culture in a pre colonial West African state whose army of women and practice of human sacrifice earned it notoriety in the racist imagination of late nineteenth century Europe and America Tracing two hundred years of the history of Dahomey up to the French colonial conquest in 1894 the book follows change in two central institutions One was the monarchy the coalitions of men and women who seized and wielded power in the name of the king The second was the palace a household of several thousand wives of the king who supported and managed state functions Looking at Dahomey against the backdrop of the Atlantic slave trade and the growth of European imperialism Edna G Bay reaches for a distinctly Dahomean perspective as she weaves together evidence drawn from travelers memoirs and local oral accounts from the religious practices of vodun and from ethnographic studies of the twentieth century Wives of the Leopard thoroughly integrates gender into the political analysis of state systems effectively creating a social history of power More broadly it argues that women as a whole and men of the lower classes were gradually squeezed out of access to power as economic resources contracted with the decline of the slave trade in the nineteenth century In these and other ways the book provides an accessible portrait of Dahomey's complex and fascinating culture without exoticizing it

Terror and Consent Philip Bobbitt, 2013-04-04 The wars against terror have begun but it will take some time before the nature and composition of these wars is widely understood The objective of these wars is not the conquest of territory or the silencing of any particular ideology but rather to secure the necessary environment for states to operate according to principles of consent and make it impossible for our enemies to impose or induce states of terror Terror and Consent argues that like so many states and civilizations in the past that suffered defeat we are fighting the last war with weapons and concepts that were useful to us then but have now been superseded Philip Bobbitt argues that we need to reforge links that previous societies have made between law and strategy to realize how the evolution of modern states has now produced a globally networked terrorism that will change as fast as we can identify it to combine humanitarian interests with strategies of intervention and above all to rethink what victory in such a war if it is a war might look like no occupied capitals no treaties no victory parades but the preservation protection and defence of states of consent This is one of the most challenging and wide ranging books of any kind about our modern world

Corporate Capitalism and Political Philosophy Suman Gupta, 2001-12-20 This book is a political philosophical critique of corporate capitalism Corporate capitalism is usually examined from a sociological or economic viewpoint and this book breaks new ground in providing a thorough account of the mechanisms which define it from a philosophical perspective revealing how these processes determine the way we live today Marxist and other left oriented political philosophies had ideological roots that were based sometimes incongruously on particular economic and sociological readings of the capitalist process Political philosophies associated with conservatism and neo liberalism have either been assimilated within capitalist discourses or they have been designed to justify corporate capitalist processes This book re examines these issues with an unusually dispassionate approach providing a systematic view of contemporary corporate capitalism in all its complexity without expecting the reader to have a specialist knowledge of sociology or economics It clarifies the scope of political philosophy by reflecting on its own methodology and practice and offers a controversial conclusion that within contemporary corporate capitalist modes of organisation there is actually no space left for political philosophy at all as corporate capitalism systematically denies all political agents an ability to exercise their political will
